

Synopsis for Case File 41, Step Back

There are six examples in this module that tell stories of stepping back. One story will ask you to speak up instead. Each will have instructions about how to proceed. This is the time to practice. Where and how will you step back? Where might you have overstepped in the past? Does your process allow you to get to the heart of the problem without exhausting everyone? Do you allow yourself to ask bold questions? Do you trust your inspiration?

Practice is necessary. Courage is mandatory. Loving inspiration is paramount.

This is a wonderful opportunity to continue to refine your practice. For instance:

If you often leave a consultation exhausted, what might it mean and what method will you use to eliminate the stress?
What design detail might you look for in your own home?
What Elements were in play during a consultation?

Let us know what you find. Your moments of reflection will help all of us find our place.

One thought:

There is always room for refinement.

The emphasis in this Case File is learning to get out of our own way. We encourage you to take your time any time and any place. Be bold and simply pause.

There is much to learn and work to do!

We hope you continue through the Case Files as you add to your Feng Shui resource library.
