

Quebec Science 4-5

Recognizes that the quantity of the matter remains the same once a change has occurred

Describes the uses of certain simple machines

Identifies the main function of some complex machines

How manufactured objects work: Identifies the mechanical parts (e.g. gears, cams, springs, simple machines, connecting rods)

Recognizes two types of motion (rotation and translation)

Describes a simple sequence of mechanical parts in motion