If we want our children
to move mountains,
we first have to let them
get out of their chairs.

-Nicolette Gowder

"Which child knows the flower best? - the one who reads about it in a book, or the one who finds it wild on the mountainside?"

Gardens and children need the same things - patience, love and someone who will never give up on them.

This is not a stick...

It's a wand

It's a guitar

It's a shovel

It's a horse

It's a baton

It's a telescope

It's a sword

It's a microphone

It's a ski pole

It's a spoon

It's a fishing pole

It's a treasure finder

It's a paddle.

A white rectangular poster with a double-line border is centered on a light gray wall. The poster contains the text "Don't grow up (it's a trap)" in a black, cursive-style font. The words are arranged vertically: "Don't" on the first line, "grow" on the second, "up" on the third, and "(it's a trap)" on the fourth.

Don't grow up (it's a trap)

A young girl with long brown hair, wearing a pink and white striped shirt and olive green pants, is climbing a large tree. She is seen from behind, reaching up to grasp a thick branch. The background is filled with lush green leaves and sunlight filtering through the canopy.
