

Newfoundland and Labrador Science 5

29.0 demonstrate that specific terminology is used in science and technology contexts

48.0 describe instances where scientific ideas and discoveries have led to new inventions and applications

49.0 describe examples of technologies that have been developed to improve living conditions

44.0 investigate different kinds of forces used to move objects or hold them in place appreciate the role and contributions of science and technology in their understanding of the world