

Prayer prompts are meant to serve as a springboard for your prayers. Use them to help focus your thoughts and give direction to your prayers as you meditate on our blessed assurance we find in God's Word.

- * Lord, in the face of things I don't understand, help me to trust You more deeply. Remind me that You are my firm foundation when I feel anxious, uncertain, or fearful.
- * Father, thank You for promising to instruct and guide those who fear You and strive to follow You. Help me keep my eyes on You and guard me from the traps Satan tries to lay before me.
- * Lord, I am like grass that withers, but Your love is everlasting and unshakable. Help me rest in the assurance that You reign over all and that Your love never ends.
- * Father, sometimes I feel so weak and inadequate. But Your Word says You will uphold and strengthen me. Help me cling to that promise; please be my strength today.
- * God, Your word tells me that You chose me before I ever knew You. Let that truth shape how I live, making me more confident, loved, and unafraid as I walk through this life.
- * Thank You, Lord, for desiring that all would come to repentance. I know that You love all of mankind and Your heart is open to all. Help me rest in the assurance that Your mercy reaches even me. Help me to have a heart like Yours that I may try to help others come to know and follow You.
- * Lord, You do not change, and Your promises never fail. It's sometimes hard for me to truly know that because people have disappointed me in the past. Help me allow the truth of Your nature to really sink in. And help me to anchor my hope in Your Word when I feel uncertain or anxious.
- * Father, remind me not to put my confidence in things that fade. Let me find true assurance in Christ, who is my Savior and my hope.

* God, when I read David's prayers to you in the Psalms, I'm amazed at his boldness and intimacy with You. Give me the sincerity David had when he cried out to You. Teach me to pray straight from my heart, with honesty and trust in Your faithfulness.

* Lord, because of Your Son's obedience unto death, I have a way of escape! His perfect sacrifice made a way for me. Because of Him, I can come to You without fear. Thank You for this blessed assurance that we have through Christ.

* Lord, sometimes it's hard for me to have faith when I can't see the outcome. Strengthen my trust in Your unseen hand and help me believe even when the path is unclear. Father, I believe—help my unbelief. In seasons of doubt, remind me of Your past faithfulness to me and to others and renew my assurance in Your promises.
