

The TidyWild Manifesto

The TidyWild Person:

Has reawakened their dreams and arranges their life to support them

Chooses freedom and joy over clutter and overwhelm

Replaces feeling overwhelmed with action

Chooses not to be a slave to their stuff

Doesn't judge themselves or others

Knows small steps lead to big changes

Takes steps daily to help home be a place of rest and nourishment

Chooses belongings thoughtfully

Chooses contentment, not clutter

Knows they were born to live life fully, unbound by the weight of too much stuff

Knows taking time to declutter creates energy and freedom

Is free to be fully present for loved ones, fun and living life to the fullest

The TidyWild Person is powerful and joyfully in control of their home, life and mind
